Re: United States v. Chaim Lebovits, CR 11-134
(SJ)(SMG)

Dear Judge Johnson:

I write to request, on consent, that speedy trial time be excluded from June 27, 2012 to July 31, 2012. On June 20, 2012, the defendants moved, with my consent, to adjourn the status conference scheduled for June 27, 2012 to July 31, 2012 ("Motion"). When I was contacted by Nathaniel Marmur, the attorney for defendant Chaim Lebovits, who filed the Motion, I stated that I would consent to the defendants' motion as long as speedy trial time was excluded. Thus, in the defendants' Motion, Mr. Marmur stated that "[c]ounsel for all defendants have informed me that they consent to the exclusion of speedy trial time until the adjourn date."

On June 21, 2012, the Court granted the defendants' Motion to adjourn the status conference previously scheduled for June 27 to July 31, but the Court did not state that it was also excluding time from June 27 to July 31. As noted above, the government only agreed to consent to the adjournment if speedy trial time was excluded and, as stated in the Motion, counsel for all defendants agreed to the exclusion of time. Indeed, the defendants' pretrial motions are pending.

Accordingly, on consent of all of the defendants,
I request that speedy trial time be excluded from June 27 to July 31.

Respectfully submitted,

Loretta E. Lynch
United States Attorney
Eastern District of New York
